Elegy

by Father Linus

Saint Barnabas look down,
See how your people frown.
Smothered in youth, in prime,
Where, O where is the rhyme?

See the smoke ascend,
Silence and myst'ry blend.
Bend the knee, bow the head,
For 'pon the Cross He bled.

Go like a Barnabas,
By wave, turmoil, fuss — tossed.
We hope, we pray, we fear.
Yet, God is ever dear.

A Note from the Secretary

Dear Parishioners,

I would like to express my thanks and well wishes to all of you. It has been a blessing to serve you these past eight years. May God watch over us all and lead us to wherever He wants each of us to continue along life's journey until one day, with the help of God's Grace, we meet again in His Heavenly Kingdom. Thank you for the memories and the lessons.

Pax Christi,
Patti

A Note from the Director of Music

Dear Parishioners,

Our last Sunday together is here. I'm devastated to see the end of this parish. Being the music director at St. Barnabas has been the best part of my music career by far. I hope that you will keep in mind this excerpt from our Lord's preaching in Matthew 10:

"...he who endures to the end will be saved. When they persecute you in one town, flee to the next..."

Who knows? Maybe we'll worship the Lord and sing together again in this life. If not, let's plan on the life to come.

Love you all,
Ryan
