
St. Elizabeth's Church

The diamond jubilee of St. Elizabeth's Catholic Church, 2721 Pine st., the pioneer church for Negroes of the St. Louis area, will be observed tomorrow at 9:30 a. m. at a Solemn High Mass in the church.

Most Rev. Charles H. Helmsing, Auxiliary Bishop of St. Louis, will deliver the sermon. Celebrant will be the church pastor, Rev. George T. Andrews, S. J.

The church itself is a part of the old Funkhouser-Walsh mansion. The building was erected by Robert M. Funkhouser, pioneer St. Louis merchandise broker and banker.
